

1ST FAERE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

French Association of Environmental and Resources Economists

11-12 September 2014

MONTPELLIER

UFR d'Economie, Site Richter, Avenue Raymond Dugrand
CS 79606, 34960 MONTPELLIER, Cedex 2

Call for papers

The first FAERE annual conference (<http://faere.fr/fr/>) Montpellier (France) to be held September 11-12th, 2014, will be organized by LAMETA.

The objective of the FAERE annual conferences is to promote the production and dissemination of research in environmental economics. A wide range of topics are welcome, including: environmental ethics, environmental agreements, the fight against pollution, loss of biodiversity, deforestation, natural hazard management, environmental federalism, property rights, climate change, green growth, recycling, threshold effects and irreversibilities, evaluation of environmental damages...

The program will consist of presentations which will follow a selection procedure, and three invited talks: 1) the intervention of a forerunner personality, 2) a plenary lecture, 3) a round table on "The challenges of environmental Economics: Past, present, future "with FAERE honorary members (R. Guesnerie, M. Moreaux, C. Henry, G. Rotillon, R. Passet *, * SC Kolm, I. Sachs *).

Important dates:

Submissions: no later than May 25th, 2014.

Acceptance: June 20th, 2014.

Registration deadline: July 15th, 2014.

Submissions:

Papers to be submitted no later than May, 25th, 2014, to: Charles.Figuieres@supagro.inra.fr.

Conference language:

Unless otherwise stated, presentations will be in english.

Coordination

Charles Figuières (INRA – LAMETA, Université de Montpellier 1), Vice-President of FAERE.

Local organisation committee

Saloua Boushina.

* to be confirmed.

