

7th FAERE ANNUAL CONFERENCE University Grenoble Alpes, 10-11 September 2020

The 7th annual conference of the French Association of Environmental and Resource Economists will be held at the University Grenoble Alpes on September 10-11, 2020. The local organizers are the GAEL research center (Grenoble Applied Economics Lab, Univ. Grenoble Alpes, CNRS, INRA, Grenoble INP).

The aim of the FAERE annual conferences is to promote the production and dissemination of research in environmental economics. Are welcome all the theoretical and applied works, on topics that include – but are not limited to – biodiversity, fishing, agriculture, forestry, water, energy, climate, pollution, health, green growth, or the bio-based economy.

Keynote speakers

- Maureen Cropper, Distinguished professor of economics, Department of economics, University of Maryland
- Ottmar Edenhofer, director and chief economist of the Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research and professor of the economics of climate change at the Technische Universität Berlin

This 7th annual conference will also be an opportunity to award the FAERE prize for the best environmental paper by a young economist. The particulars of this contest can be found at the Conference website.

All presentations will be given in English. Submissions must be complete papers.

Authors are invited to submit their paper at the Conference website:
